

Plastic Surgeon Will Address Cosmetologists

Dr. Simon Schroeder, director of the Plastic Surgery Foundation, will give an illustrated lecture on Facial Structure and Hair Styling to the Centinela Cosmetologists Association, Tuesday, April 4, 8:30 p.m. at Eagles Hall, 1501 S. Hawthorne. It was announced this week by Mrs. Olive Scott, program chairman of the group.

Mrs. Scott said the noted Los Angeles surgeon will employ before-and after slides of actual case histories to demonstrate how a change in one facial feature affects total appearance. He will also discuss the ways in which standards of physical beauty change in different historical eras.

Dr. Schroeder, staff plastic surgeon with 14 Southern California hospitals is a popular lecturer before both professional and lay groups and has been interviewed on radio and television. The surgeon, whose offices are at 410 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, was a founder of the Children's Plastic Surgery Foundation, supported by representatives of private and governmental groups.
